Re: 2019 Rolex 24H Event Driver and Team Manager Briefing

As we prepare for the IMSA 50th anniversary running of the Rolex 24 At Daytona Event, we would like to address the IMSA Michelin Pilot Challenge Driver and Team Manager Briefing on Friday, January 25. This is the highest attended meeting of the season, with a large number of required attendees as well as VIPs, partners, sponsors and honorees.

Therefore, IMSA Competition respectfully requests that attendance is restricted to designated Team, Manufacturer, Industry Partner and Sponsor representatives that conduct a business-related purpose only. Excess team members, family members & friends should not plan to attend.

We appreciate your support in ensuring this briefing meets the professional standard that it rightfully deserves, synonymous with the IMSA 50th anniversary running of the Rolex 24 At Daytona Event.
