Re: 2019 Annual Credential and Other Key Dates

---

The 2019 Annual Driver Licensing process is now underway and below are key dates that must be respected.

1. Drivers - IMSA must receive all necessary paperwork from Drivers by the following dates:
  - o Monday, December 17, 2018 for Drivers to participate in the ROAR Event.
  - o Monday, January 7, 2019 for Drivers to compete in the Rolex 24H Event.

PLEASE NOTE: Driver Licensing will not be processed at Events in 2019.

The 2019 Annual Credential Application process is now underway and below are key dates that must be respected in order to receive a 2019 IMSA annual credential in the mail. Applications received after the dates below will require the credential(s) be picked up at IMSA Registration will-call at the Event.

2. Crew - All team personnel must apply and return waiver by Friday, December 14, 2018 for the 2019 IMSA annual credential to be mailed.
3. Partners / Industry Support / Vendors - Must apply and return waiver by Friday, December 14, 2018 for a 2019 IMSA annual credential to be mailed.
4. Media - Must apply and return waiver by Friday, December 14, 2018 for a 2019 IMSA annual credential to be mailed.

If you have not received a waiver after submitting your application, please check your personal email address or spam filter. IMSA Annual Credentials not submitted with a waiver by Friday, December 14, 2018 will not be mailed and will only be available for pick up at IMSA Registration will-call.

For applications regarding 'new-to-IMSA' Silver Drivers per Article 11.2.8.A; requests (including Driver Name / Team Name / planned Class / planned Races), must be submitted by the following dates for the Daytona International Speedway Events:

- o Tuesday, December 18, 2018 for Drivers to participate in the ROAR Event.
- o Tuesday, January 8, 2019 for Drivers to compete in the Rolex 24H Event.

Please Note: The IMSA office is closed - Saturday, December 22, 2018 through Tuesday, January 1, 2019.
